Winthrop Launches Quiz Program Saturday

Gladys Swarthout Will Present First Concert Tuesday Night, October 8

Leading 'Met' Star Will Give Varied Program to Audience

Gladys Swarthout, leading mezzo soprano of the Metropolitan, Chicago, and San Francisco Opera companies, will appear on Tuesday, October 8, at 8 o'clock in the College auditorium, introducing the 1946-47 Artist Course series.

Miss Swarthout made her memorable Metropolitan debut in 1929 as the aged, blind La Ciocha in "La Gioconda." The same season she was starred as Nijetia in the American premier of Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Sasko."

The role with which she is most closely identified is that of Carmen. Since her initial appearance in Bizet's cigarette girl, she has established herself as the ranking Carmen of the day.

Miss Swarthout will begin her program Tuesday night with the "Prayer" from "Moscow Cantata" by Tchaikowsky. For the second part of her concert, she will sing "Amor, domiglione" by Struzzi, "Le Vie est un Rive" by Haydn; "Notte" from "Floridante" by Handel, and "Non so più" from "Nozze di Figaro" by Mozart.

Miss Swarthout will sing during the evening six selections by contemporary American composers. The first two are "The Song of Brownings" poems, "Must a Little Love, Love" and "How Do I Love Thee," arranged by Ernest Lubin and William Roy, respectively.

Included in her program will be four folk songs in settings by John Kander Miles. They are "Go Way from My Window," "Gambler's Wife," and first performances of "Blue Madonna" and "My Love is a Rider."

Also to be sung are "Tambourin" by Rameau-Godowsky and "Valise" from "La plus que lente" by Debussy.

Miss Swarthout will be accompanied by the piano by Carroll Hollister, who will render "Toccata" by Khateaurian.

Dean Hardin Is Presented Son's Bronze Medal

Mrs. Kate Glenn Hardin, dean of women, was given the Bronze Star Medal posthumously Saturday, September 26, for her son, Major Lyle Glenn Hardin, who was killed in action in May, 1942.

The Bronze Star Medal was presented to Mrs. Hardin by the commanding officer of the South Carolina military district in his office in Columbia at the suggestion of General Wainwright "for meritorious service from April 20 to May 6, 1942."

"Major Hardin," the citation continued, "reorganized his regiment and took action to maintain its combat effectiveness during severe difficulties."

Mrs. Hardin's two sons, Edward, who is a student at the State University law school, and Lawrence, of Waterboro, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence Hardin, and her daughter Kattie were present at the citation.

Record Exam To Be Given At Winthrop

An announcement of the Graduate record examination to be given at Winthrop October 28 and 29 was made recently by John G. Kelly, registrar.

The graduate record examinations are required by a large number of graduate schools in the United States and Canada and recommended by many. The examination enables the student to compare his present knowledge directly with that of the average student like himself in length of schooling, in field of study, in type of instruction, and in certain regions of the country.

According to the announcement, by reporting the relative strength of the student's knowledge, regardless of where or how gained, the examination may enforce his claim to fellowships or financial aid, to advanced standing in case of transfer, to admission from colleges that are distant or little known, and to admission in case of adequate preparation but deficient records.

The announcement also states that the examination is effective for college sophomores as a measure of general education and as indicating potential facility in future fields of concentration. When it is repeated after two years, it will give a trustworthy index of the student's relative gain from all sources in post-freshman study.

The examination requires two separate half-days and will be given as follows: first session October 28 at 1:00 p.m. and second session October 29 at 8:30 a.m. The room for the examination will be announced later. Applications should be mailed to The Graduate Record Examination, 437 West 58th Street, New York, 19, N. Y. not later than October 14. Special application sets may be obtained from the office of the registrar or by writing directly to The Graduate Record Examination.

11 Included In First Student Music Recital

Winthrop college presented 11 girls in the first student recital this fall on October 2 in the Conservatory of Music.

The program included an organ solo, "Prelude in B Flat Major" by Bach; piano solos, "Ochi Susanna" by Beethoven and "Sevilla" by Albeniz; piano selections by Elizabeth Bolt; and "Waltz in E Minor" and "Polonaise in C Minor" by Chopin, also piano numbers by Louisa White.

Voice solos included "Dedication" by Franz, Clara Ann Morse; "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal" by Quilter, Ann McKnight; "Boat Song" by Grieg and "April May April" by Milligan, Elizabeth Bolt; "The Sleep That Fills on Beauty's Eyes" by Carpenter, Bease; "Vergin Tutto Amor" by Durante, Ruby McCullough; and "The Lotus Flower" by Schumann, Mildred Fletcher.

The program was completed with two piano solos: "Ochi Susanna" by Foster, Nordoff, Belvie, Bease, and "Scherzo Humouristique" by Copeland, Jean Bonnette.

Hollis Urges Cooperation For Laundry

Mr. Dan Hollis, operator of the College laundry, has made an appeal for the full cooperation of each dormitory student in order that the laundry and dry cleaning plant may produce a better quality of work and maintain the present service.

Schedules Must Be Followed

"It is of the utmost importance," Mr. Hollis stated, "that the laundry and dry cleaning schedules posted in each dormitory be strictly followed. That is, all laundry should be properly and adequately marked, listed, and placed in a laundry bag with the laundry list securely fastened inside the bag. The bag should then be closed tightly and put out in the proper place by 8 a.m. on the designated day."

Dry Cleaning Regulations

In regard to dry cleaning, Mr. Hollis has asked that it be brought to the laundry by 8 a.m. on the same day that the laundry is taken. Due to the lack of storage facilities, it is imperative that dry cleaning be called for on the following day, so that space can be available for the next day's work.

The plant can not be responsible for fancy buttons, pins or trinkets, Mr. Hollis pointed out. For this reason, the girls are asked to remove such valuables from their clothes.

Dry cleaning should be placed in a bundle with one list containing name, room number, and dormitory. Coat hangers must be provided for each garment.

October 7 Is Picture Date For Year Book

Pictures of the Tatler will be taken the week of October 7 by the Wooten-Moulton Photographers of Chapel Hill, N. C., Rachel McMaster, editor of the Tatler, has announced.

Students and faculty members are requested to sign up on the bulletin board in the Post Office at the time convenient for them to have their pictures made. There will be three schedules posted: one for the freshmen, for the sophomores and faculty, and one for the junior and senior classes. Three photographers will be located in different rooms in Johnson hall for the various groups.

Seniors and sophomores will wear the white silk blouses with V-neck, turnback collars, and juniors and freshmen will wear round-necked white blouses. Students are asked to wear only these types of blouses.

Puerto Rican Students Fall "In Loff With Weenthrop"

By "LIB" ALLEN

"We think Weenthrop is much more beautiful than the pictures in the pamphlet!" And with this inspiring exclamation, thus began an interview with four of the many new faces on Winthrop campus.

These particular four belong to Gloria Alicia Gonzales, Zenia Micheo Echegaray, Gladys Baldassari, and Ana Elena Cortes Rodriguez, all hailing from Puerto Rico. Gladys and Ana are from Santurce, while Gloria and Zenia call Arecibo home.

Gladys and Ana with Mrs. Munoz and her daughter, Helga, flew from Puerto Rico to Miami Beach and from there came by pullman to Rock Hill.

Winthrop impresses them. When asked about their first impression of our campus, they graciously answered, "We fell in love with it!"

They were particularly impressed (and still are) by the "friendliness of the Weenthrop girls."

As all girls do sooner or later, mostly later, we approached the subject of the opposite sex, and as to their opinion of American boys, Gladys looked me straight in the eye and retorted, "I think all American boys are wolverines!"

On this subject, they admit they are quite fascinated by American boys' clothes, especially red sweaters and the "square," (meaning plaid shirts).

On the subject of dancing, Ana said, "I am learning to 'dope' and then I will learn to 'jitter'!" Our dancing fascinations them because it "sees so foony."

The South appeals to them much more than New York. In New York, quote Gladys: "Averybody ees hooring!—end quote. Nevertheless, they will all spend Christmas in New York with some of their relatives.

"The sky looks so rainy here at night, while in Puerto Rico there are a beeg moon and meellions of stars!" one exclaimed.

At the start of this interview, your reporter was asking the questions. This however did not last, and I found myself answering such questions as: "Why do the girls wear the white long-tailed shirts and the blue jeans rolled up? Why do the girls have so many boy friends? When the boys and girls hold the hands on the campus, are they engaged? How does it feel to be with a boy without a chaperon?"

There are vacancies in the trumpet and saxophone sections. Girls interested in filling vacancies are asked to contact Helen Culp.

7 Leading Merchants Sponsor 30 Minute Program; Prizes Offered

"Fun in Education," a quiz program which is to be broadcast over WRHI and sponsored by leading merchants of Rock Hill, will be presented each Saturday night from 7:15 to 7:45 p.m. in the College auditorium, Mary Stanley, president of the Student Government association, has announced.

Selection of Contestants

Winthrop students are requested to be seated in the Auditorium by 7:00 o'clock so that numbers can be called before the program begins and to eliminate noise after the program is on the air. Contestants will be selected from the numbers on the theatre stubs. The community sign will be a featured part of the program, and the scheduled movie will be shown immediately after the program goes off the air. Mr. George Cobb, commercial manager of WRHI, will be Master of Ceremonies, and states that the questions asked will cover all phases.

Prizes Awarded

Enticing prizes will be awarded each week, according to Mr. Cobb, and during each program two master prizes will be won. A Reynold's pen will be the reward for the correct answer to the "jack pot" question which each contestant will have a chance to answer. One sponsor will also give a master prize each week, and the stores will give individual prizes.

Sponsors for "Fun in Education" are Sherer's Sport Shop, the City Variety Grill, Phillips Drug Store, White Printing company, Thackston's Studio, and The Smart Shop.

This program is presented "to show that education is not dry, but can be a lot of fun," Mary Stanley stated.

Tutoring To Be Installed For Freshmen

A system of tutoring for freshmen who are having difficulties in their subjects is to be begun in the near future, according to Mrs. Ethel Moyers, new advisor to freshmen.

Freshmen members who feel that a student will be benefited by help will send a list to the freshmen advisor and groups will be formed to a maximum of five girls. Any student will be tutored free of charge. Any student may obtain individual help if she feels the need for it, provided she pays the charge herself.

The tutors will come from junior and senior majors in the different departments, who are qualified and recommended by the heads of the departments. The tutors will be paid by the college and will gain invaluable experience in teaching.

"The special classes are to be started before the freshmen have become too lost in their work," Mrs. Moyers stated.

Gilbreth Named Club Co-Sponsor

Dr. Harold Gilbreth, head of the culture department, was elected co-sponsor of Beta Alpha, honorary commerce society, for the coming year at a meeting held in the parlor of Senior hall September 28, according to Betty Masters, president.

Fine, personal stationery, and plans for the future meetings were discussed.

LIBRARY TO CLOSE
The Library will be closed nights on which lectures and artist courses are scheduled, according to Mrs. Frances L. Spain, librarian.

What We Live By

The Johnsonian wants to deserve a reputation for accuracy, thoroughness, and fairness in covering the Winthrop college campus. You will do us a favor if you call our attention to any failure in measuring up to any of these fundamentals of good newspapering.

Casually

By MARY LAY EWING

Nerves were frayed, and everybody still jumping last week over WC's unforgettable experience. Added to that harrowing night in the Infirmary. Looks as if this may be a "squeaking out" winter.

A Noteworthy Occasion Orchids to Puerto Rican Helga de Munoz for representing our Alma Mater at the famous "College Rhythm" ball held in Puerto Rico August 3. A banner bearing the name of Winthrop college was displayed for the first time. Quite an honor for WC!

Dining Room To the refrain of "Happy Birthday" and "Round the table you must go," Winthrop girls eat a noisy breakfast, dinner, and supper.

During Etiquette week last year, it was decided that singing in the Dining hall be dispensed with except once a month when "Happy Birthday" should be sung to all those having birthdays that particular month. You voted for this rule, so it's up to you to see that it's kept in effect.

WC On Tomorrow night, Winthrop girls will have a chance to display their mental IQ's on the air at the regular Saturday night community sing. A half-hour program is slated with 15 minutes singing, and 15 minutes devoted to a quiz program in which the audience will participate. This is something new at Winthrop and deserves good response.

A Talented Trio Still in the line of Saturday night entertainment, Winthrop enthusiastically applauded the talented trio and their efforts to entertain the audience at the Saturday night movie. The hilariously rendition of "Prisoner of Love" was solid. We're highly in favor of more musical talent of this kind on Saturday nights.

Wanted: Revision of Dating Rules

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION—

Dear Campus Town Hall:
I suppose when a group of people living together as a unit want a change of any kind, the best way to go about it is to ask for it. From my observations, the change most desired by the students I've talked with, is a change in dating rules. To put it bluntly, we would like to see a complete revision of those dating rules. I sincerely hope what I have to say here truly reflects the attitude of the students. I am given to understand that it does.

I would like to have the subject of dating off-campus discussed openly, and if any changes seem in order, to have the matter given attention by our Senate. As a freshman last year, I was impressed with the Senate's efficiency, and I'm satisfied that it would act wisely.

Other colleges have success with lenient dating rules, and I feel Winthrop could have success, too. I'm taking into consideration that I'm a student, but I'm also thinking about the fine girls who compose it. I think these girls should be given an opportunity to show how they would act if they were given what they now ask for.

The main reason for asking to date off-campus is as follows: Boys who come to see Winthrop girls very often come quite a distance. They don't want to sit in a parlor where everyone who walks by stares with open mouth, inquiring, "Is that a MAN?" Have you ever attended the College movie and seen the way a girl and her date are put on display? It is quite embarrassing, even if it is human nature. A visitor likes to take his date out to dinner, to a picture show, or to some place where he can be not so much with her as without the rest of the students.

I don't have any plan to submit; I have only a few suggestions. Could we date until a later hour off-campus? We date at home. Let the responsibility of approval rest with our parents. Could underclassmen, as in other colleges, have one night a week in addition to Saturday and Sunday nights on which they could date in case a friend happened to come? Could we discuss the rules and formulate a new system?

Maybe a new plan would be more trouble, but I feel sure the students would benefit by it. Surely there is enough character on the campus to warrant a change.

Sincerely,
Virginia Kirkland McClary.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Campus Town Hall agrees that the current problem advanced by Student McClary is worthy of consideration by the Winthrop Student Body, and deserves full space in this week's column. The proper channel for further steps is through the Senate, legislative branch of SGA.

On Dating Rules

This week's letter to Campus Town Hall will probably stir up various vehement comments on this well-worn subject of dating. We heartily agree with student McClary that our present dating rules should undergo complete revision. And, as she points out, the Senate is the proper channel through which action should be taken.

It is particularly hard for underclassmen to enjoy dating privileges as they now stand. Seniors hold an advantage over the lower classes due to the fact that they may date every night off-campus. This freedom given to seniors is a big step, and the great change through which action should be taken. Juniors are particularly short-changed by the dating rules. They enjoy little or no more freedom than freshmen and sophomores.

Each year at colleges all over the United States, rules are changed to keep up with the trend of the times. Winthrop has and has been the practice at Winthrop.

When the entire student body wishes a change in certain rules, it is up to the faculty members and administrative officers to give due consideration to our wants and needs.

In the first place, we don't want to be behind other colleges, and we don't want to be old-fashioned. In the second place, we want only to be given those privileges which would benefit us most, and would be for our own good and happiness.

We suggest that action be taken promptly on this subject before the school year progresses any further. It's up to every student on the campus who desires to see our dating rules changed to get busy and do something about it!

Check-Up!

This business of campus-wide check-ups is one which is constantly before us throughout the school year. There are certain rules which must be strictly adhered to during a check-up and carefully abided by; if not, we are faced with an insurmountable problem of failure.

Each year, check-ups are linked with a certain amount of confusion, which could be avoided if every member of the student body knew exactly what to do.

During a check-up, seniors may leave the campus and return through the front door of Senior hall provided they sign out. Juniors who are taking their night out, may sign out to leave the campus, but on returning must wait at the gate until the check-up is over. Excepting seniors, students who are returning to the campus must wait at the gate. Dates and visitors who cannot meet park outside the gate and walk in. No cars are permitted to enter the grounds except faculty members or administrative officers.

Students are not allowed to walk from one building to another. They must stop and wait where the person checking-up tells them to until the check-up is over. Students walking across the campus when the check-up starts, should keep going until they reach their destination, provided they walk outside. If the check-up is not over at 10:30 p.m., students who were delayed should return to their dormitories by way of the campus.

Revival of Forensic Activities

Yesterday, Winthrop's "Radioactive" presented their first radio program over station WRHI in Rock Hill. This group of students is part of the new speech organization recently established at Winthrop under direction of Miss Nina Hughes of the English department.

Last week, THE JOHNSONIAN carried a story giving the qualifications for membership in the group and forensic activities planned for the year. Some of the high lights of the year's activities are radio speaking, a detailed study of world government debated in round-table discussions among the girls, debates, and assembly programs.

Membership into the organization is still open, and anyone interested in joining can contact Miss Hughes in her office on second floor Johnson hall. Meetings have been tentatively scheduled for Thursday evenings at 6:30 o'clock. The group has not been officially named, although several names have been suggested.

Response to the organization has been good, and should continue to be so. A keen interest on the part of the students is necessary to make this new club a success. In the past, Winthrop girls have taken part in similar organizations, and this year marks the revival of forensic activities.

Your participation, response, and backing are needed to promote the organization—a good step to help put Winthrop on the map.

Lull In The Journalism Department

Due to the absence of an instructor in the journalism department this semester, students enrolled as majors and students taking courses in that field of study have been forced to substitute other subjects until an instructor can be procured.

The fact that no teacher has as yet arrived has forced THE JOHNSONIAN to operate entirely on its own. Although Miss Elsie Shoemaker, past journalism instructor, was not officially the advisor for THE JOHNSONIAN, she offered much help in the way of criticism and advice.

THE JOHNSONIAN office is still open to students who wish to read their hometown papers and magazines; however, magazine and newspaper subscriptions may run out, the consequences being that they cannot be renewed until some person is charged with that responsibility.

The staff of THE JOHNSONIAN will do all in its power to put out a paper equal to those in the past. We will also endeavor to keep things up to par in the office, and magazines and newspapers in order for your enjoyment.

Outside These Gates

Clutching some keyhole information for the second time, this very green person emerges again from the house of many columns and the watchful stare of the ever-present Minerva and her pet snake.

SWAN SONG

Ring down the curtain in his last dancing picture, "Blue Skies" is Fred Astaire. After his final routine entitled "Putting on the Ritz," Fred, not sad in the least after 40 years of it, hangs up his 90 pairs of dancing shoes to gather well-earned dust. The end of a great era for his fans. Among the fall openings, near the top of the gaudy cinema tree, are "Three Wise Folks" and the life of "Sister Kenny." Champion boo hoo! Margaret O'Brien has her name in lights in the former, she, not being one of the three, however, but contributing to the acquired wisdom of Edward Arnold, Lewis Stone, and Lionel Barrymore. Rosalind Russell stars in the latter opposite Alexander Knox. Both pictures promise to be bright leaves in the autumn whirl.

UP THE LADDER

Pivoting into the limelight is a ballet with the assured title of "Ballet for America" and making its initial appearance in Bridgeport, Conn. Remember, not long ago on the campus, the Ballet Russe with Alicia Markova and Anton Dolin! Announcements show them selected for a good run at the Metropolitan Opera House from tour to top, all in hope, ships, and jumps.

LONG AND SHORT HAIRD

Wagner is back on the turn-table in two new Columbia albums, his music being rendered by the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra, conducted by Arthur Rodzinski, and assisted in places by other old acquaintances, Helen Traubel, and singing partner Emory Darcy. In the popularity contest running "needle to needle" are two albums, "Jerome Kern Melodies," handled by Al Goodman and "Irving Berlin," smoothed in the Wayne King manner.

OUI, OUI

His rendition of "J'attendrai" could leave no one "Stone Cold Dead in the Market."

... Of Things

TO ARMY-OKLAHOMA CLASH

"Butch" Blanchard journeyed to West Point with her mother, Mrs. Felix Blanchard last week end to see the Army-Oklahoma game. The Army-Oklahoma game.

HOMEcomings—

It seems that half the campus signed out "home" last Saturday. Hilda Brockman and freshman sister Margaret went "home to Sparanburg," as did Joanne Randall. Billy Reddie hiked North Augusta way to see the family, and Martha Thomas went "home to Charleston." Others were Ruth Hill who went to Timmouville, and Mary Hood to Ridgeway. Louise Dickson travelled North Carolina way to Belmont, and Faith Holly signed out "home to Camden."

"TO CHARLOTTE SHOPPING"

Among the multitudes and more who went shopping up Charlotte way last Saturday in spite of the rain were Betty Jo Miller, Gladys Whittington, and Alberta Lechicote.

... Of People

Alice Lucas went to Orangeburg last week end to visit Lillian Dukes, and "Lou" Hubbard hustled home to see a friend from overseas. Joanne MacAulley, sophomore at Queens college, hailing from Seneca, spent the week end with Lillian Adams and Dottie Austin. Joanne was the third party in the before-movie sing-song that everybody enjoyed so much last Saturday night.

MOTHERS AND FATHERS

It seems that Winthrop's campus was just flooded with parents last week end. Among the many lucky, lucky daughters were Janet Horne, Josephine Gentley, and Laurell Burrows.

MEN AND MORE MEN

The dormitory date books were filled to the brim last Saturday and Sunday. Among those Winthrop daughters keeping their morale in the clouds were Nancy Neal, Ellen Copeland, Betty Sanders, Julie Leland, and Lydia and Ann May.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS IN THE RAIN

Claudia Ann Summers, Joan Newborne, and Betty Ray Davis were among those who signed out last week end "home to a wedding"—home in this case being Orangeburg.

ENTERTAINING

McLaurin's own Mrs. R. W. Timmerman entertained Mrs. J. E. Barrow, new Episcopal secretary, and a few of the Episcopal girls in her room last Saturday night after the movie.

WC's Annual Autumn Ball Scheduled November 9

Doug Hill Orchestra To Furnish Music

The annual Autumn ball, the first formal dance of the '46-'47 school year, has been scheduled for November 9 in the College dining room, according to Billy Reddie, chairman of the Dance committee.

Doug Hill and his orchestra from Charlotte will supply the music, and invitations will be on sale in the post office about a week before the dance date. Plans will be announced at a later date as to the price of the invitations.

Chairmen for chaperon, cleanup, invitation, and decoration committees will be elected from the Dance committee members, and other members of the committee will be chosen from the student body.

Members of the Dance committee are chairman Billy Reddie, seniors Ann Reel and Kathryn McConnell; juniors, "Jackie" Frieron and Ann Reddie, and sophomores Dorothy Fant and Claudia Ann Summers. Members from the freshman class will be elected soon.

Saturday Movie Stars Ladd In "Blue Dahlia"

"The Blue Dahlia," starring Allan Ladd, will be presented at the College auditorium tomorrow night, October 5. Teaming with Ladd are Veronica Lake, William Bendix, and Hugh Beaumont in this exciting new murder-mystery melodrama by Raymond Chandler.

Frosh Get "In The Groove" As WC's "Time Goes By"

Over 600 new daughters have been welcomed into Winthrop's family. All, now clad in navy and white, have suffered the trials of matriculation, orientation, registration, and every other "ation" required to qualify them as members of our student body.

On Being Beautiful

Members of this lively class have shown talent and ingenuity in decorating their rooms. Fresh curtains, new bed spreads, mirrors, and pennants have been used to create novel arrangements, and pictures, bed toys, and lamps add a touch of home.

Learning to be good children of their "Alma Mater," they now wait patiently in the uniform line, "hold their own" against their predecessors in the PO, and see to it personally that the Canteen does not go out of business. Yes, they are learning fast! There are bells to wake them up, to invite them to meals, to insist they go to class, to remind them to study, to allow them to play, and to tell them when to go to bed. As for any other information, upperclassmen would readily refer them to sections of the Handbook which advise the best time of the day for breathing, sitting in chairs, and walking the floor.

How Time Flies!

All these small details are soon accepted 'cause who has time to think? Upperclassmen have survived, and now realize that "tempus fugit." Seniors are now looking back on their College life as "four years that seem like a day."
